

Invest in your future leaders

AWC Center for Quality Communities promotes civic engagement in cities and towns. Our goal is to develop a broad public understanding of the important role of cities and towns across the state. The Center for Quality Communities is a 501(c)(3) charitable organization and donations are tax deductible.

The Center for Quality Communities Scholarship supports graduating high school students who show strong civic leadership and plan to attend college or a trade school. Four $1000 scholarships will be awarded in 2012.

Your generous donation helps the Center continue its commitment to investing in Washington’s next generation of leaders.
